“ Bobby Joe used to come over my house and we would toss the football with my kids. Then watch tv. He was always a gentleman. Was good with my kids and they loved him. Me and him were like best friends. I prayed that he would find a good woman to marry and take care of him. I'm glad my prayer was answered. God bless him and his family.

“ Bobby Joe was like a brother to me. Growing up together will be a memory I will never forget. I was jelus of you in school, because you was always " POPULAR" and I was'nt, but I had a great idea. I told everyone that you was my uncle,at first knowone believed me. They would see you and I going to grandmas for lunch, I finally convenced them that it was true.All of his friends were my friends to after that All the girls would hang out with me where they could see Bobby, they would always say he is so cute.Anyway that is how I became popular at school. Thanks Bobby.....lol. He was always making me mad (just like a mean brother). I always teased him all the time about being 4 months older than him You had them girls running after you all the time.I know as we grow older we kinda drifed apart, but I Love You Bobby Joe, I always have and always will. RIP my Brother!!
