“ Tommy, I am so sorry to hear about Cindy’s passing. I don’t have the words to make your pain go away. If I did, I would. I don’t have the answers to your questions. If I did, I’d share them with you. All I know how to do is to ask God to use your church, your family, and your friends to be there for you. I am praying for you and your family and will continue asking God to comfort each of you as only He can.

“ Tommy, I want you and your family to know that my heart is heavy to learn of your sudden loss. My hope is that you find comfort not only now but in the many days ahead. I believe that God granted us grief so that we might be able to make it through days like these. The emotions you feel and will continue to feel are given to us by our Creator so that we may cope with our loss. My prayer is that God will comfort you and truly let you know that Cindy is safe with Him and that you will see her again in Heaven. Jim Bryant

“ She was the best friend I ever had. She was like a sister to me. My fondest memory was Heaven's Gates Hells Flames and going to church with her then going to her house and spending the day with her and her family. Fly high Sister love you always
