

Mr. Eugene Arnold Gaddis Jr.

December 17, 1973 - December 31, 2018

Eugene Arnold Gaddis Jr. died on December 31, 2018 at St. Bernards Medical Center. Our hearts are breaking today as we realize the depth of our loss. Eugene was bigger than life, smart, bold, opinionated, controversial, outgoing, wild, and full of laughter.

Born December of 1973 in West Memphis, Arkansas to Eugene Arnold Sr. and Wanda Sue (Turpen) Gaddis. Eugene grew up in Marked Tree and worked as a farm hand for many years. His family was his pride and joy. He was so proud of his girls. He and his friends enjoyed passing time at the levee. He had a passion for motorcycles, riding the back roads on ATVs and occasionally on a bicycle.

Eugene was preceded in death by his father Eugene Gaddis Sr, grandparents Buford and Juanita Turpen, and grandparents Charlie and Molly Gaddis all of Marked Tree.

He is survived by his wife Shannon (Crum) Gaddis and two daughters Danielle Marie Gaddis and Nova Leigh Gaddis; his mother Wanda Sue Gaddis and his sister Paula Breann Gaddis Adamson all of Marked Tree; along with a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, & friends.

There will be a Celebration in honor of Eugene's Life Tuesday January 8th at 6PM at the Marked Tree Church of God.

Tri-City LLC Crematory Funeral Home is honored and privileged to serve the Gaddis family. Memories and condolences may be shared with the family at www.Tri-CityLLC.com .

“ Rlp Eugene. I will miss you. It won't be the same without you. I have many memories of us growing up together, catching crawdads, building forts, swimming in the rice ponds, I could go on forever. You was more like a brother than cousin growing up. We were together everyday. I love you.

We had alot of fun memories growing up. Always outside. Mudpies, playing store with grandmas old cans, feeding chickens when she didn't want us to, hide & seek all around out there, headhunters in fields....on and on lol. Sure miss those days and that's how I remember Eugene. Happy.
