

Mr. Jack Wells II

August 9, 1963 - March 27, 2017

Jack Wells II received his Wings of Freedom from this life March 27th 2017. He died at home in Blytheville at the age of 53, surrounded by family and friends. He had battled esophageal cancer for nine months.

Lil' Jack was a simple man with a loving heart. Always happy, he could light up the room with his smile, a funny story, a magic trick or an act of kindness.

He was preceded in death by his parents Madge and Jack Wells.

He is survived by one son, Austin Pankey of Blytheville; two sisters Jamie Olson of San Antonio, Texas and Betty Naylor of Hattiesburg, Mississippi; an aunt and uncle both of Blytheville; a special friend Julie Griffis of Blytheville and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

All family and friends are welcome to attend a Casual Memorial for Jack at Nelson Park, (corner of Chickasawba and Division) Friday, March 31st at 6pm.

“ I'm so sorry this happened to Lil Jack, as he was called from birth to a toddler and upward. Jack and I were cousins by marriage. My stepfather, Elmer Wells and Lil Jacks father Jack Wells were were brothers. He seemed quite young to leave this world, but I know he's in a much better place. He now has angel wings to look after his siblings and good friends. Lil Jack R.I.P
