

Mr. Larry Russell Moss

January 16, 1963 - December 28, 2019

Larry Russell Moss, 56, died unexpectedly on December 28, 2019 at his home in Jonesboro, Arkansas. He was the oldest of four siblings born in Midwest, Oklahoma to Larry Scott Moss and Quinetta Kelley Moss on January 16, 1963.

Russell struggled throughout his life with depression and anxiety. He had worked for years to overcome mental illness. It is right to acknowledge and honor the progress he had made while recognizing the toll that struggle took on his life. Russell simply could not cope any longer and let go.

He was preceded in death by his father Larry Scott Moss, brother Jimmy Michael James and sisters Kimberly Ann Moss Butler and LaRonna Kay James.

Russell left behind his mother Quinetta Kelley James of Jonesboro; one son Zach Moss of Jonesboro; one daughter Kimberly Diane (Cole) Mooney of Brookland and five grandchildren.

Even in the darkest places, there is hope for light. May God bring Russell's family peace in this time of such immeasurable loss.

*Russell was a tormented soul all his life. I know the loving God that I met will not hold suicide against him because his mind was not working right. I know he finally found the peace he was searching for, I'm just sorry that he had to lose his life to find it.
I don't understand Gods will but I know he promised me that everything is going to be alright and he can't lie so be faithful keep looking up and hang on because The Lord is coming and everything is going to be alright!
Rest In Peace, Russell.*
