“ As I reminisce my visit up there with you last year in October I can't help but admire all the strength you displayed to me and the advice you gave me. I know now that the day that was planned with Crista and she didn't join us was how it was meant to be. Just you and me! It hurt me to see you the way I did this last time. It saddens me to not receive your calls or hear you on the phone daily with mom and telling me how much you loved me..Thank you for that!! I listened to the voice-mail a little late but I heard it... I know God does things for a reason and you were suffering so it was time. I have you in my heart and the gates of memories will never close; I love and miss you everyday. Till we meet again...Always and Forever your sister "Cheli" Cristy
