

Mr. Paul Allen Shortnacy

October 27, 1969 - January 16, 2023

On Monday, January 16, 2023, Paul Allen Shortnacy died peacefully, surrounded by family at Flo & Phil Jones Hospice House, after a yearlong battle with leukemia.

Paul was born on October 27, 1969, in Howell, MI to the late Doris McKeown. He grew up in New Albany, MS and later moved to Jonesboro, AR where he settled.

Paul had a successful career as an Independent Agent for Cornerstone Financial. He was an avid traveler and musician, where he lived a lifetime of adventure. Paul had a passion to cook, becoming a Master Chef among family and friends.

He enjoyed long weekends on Spring River, attending live sporting events and concerts, taking road trips to visit friends and family, and to sight see beautiful beaches and lakes. He loved all things outdoors—hunting, fishing, gardening, grilling, and camping.

Paul will always be remembered for his big heart and vivacious laugh. His kindness and sense of humor were admired by family and friends. He never met a stranger and never forgot a face. He enjoyed making others laugh and feel accepted. He was always willing to lend a hand and help those in need. He was a dedicated family man who loved unconditionally. He touched the lives of so many.

His memory lives on with his son, Colby Shortnacy and granddaughter Gianna Nelson, both of Jonesboro, AR; one sister, Melissa (Neil) Modjewski of Ringle, WI; two brothers, Phillip (Angela) McKeown of Sun Prairie, WI and Kevin (Charlene) Givens of Louisville, CO; four nieces: Megan & Emma Modjewski, Aria McKeown and Emma Givens; six nephews: Mason Hein, Tyler Modjewski, Kaden, Paxton & Payton McKeown, and Elliott Givens.
