

Ms. Peggy Ann Bland Smith

October 30, 1970 - October 16, 2025

Peggy Ann Bland Smith "Ann", age 54, of Poplar Bluff, Missouri, entered into the presence of the Lord on October 16, 2025, at home while peacefully sleeping.

Born October 30, 1970, to James and Linda Bland, Ann grew up in Tomato, Arkansas, and attended school in Armorel.

Ann loved her children and grandchildren dearly and spoke of them often to anyone who would listen. She had a wonderful sense of humor and found joy in making others laugh. In her free time, she enjoyed crocheting, listening to music, and watching true crime shows.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her sister, Penny Smith, and her daughter, Haley Smith.

Ann is survived by her daughters, Nikki (Randall) Collins of Poplar Bluff, Missouri, and Linda Baker of Greenville, Missouri; and her brother, Sherman Dale Wilson of Sikeston, Missouri. She also leaves behind six grandchildren: Braylon Kilpatrick, Laken Collins, Riley Collins, Alaina Kilpatrick, Rustin Collins, and Kaylee Tamez.

Ann had previously accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior and is now living in eternal peace with the Lord.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, November 1, 2025, at 11:00 a.m. at Kennett First General Baptist Church in Kennett, Missouri, with Pastor Wayne Burchett officiating.

Tri-City LLC Crematory Funeral Home is honored and privileged to serve the family of Ann Smith. Online condolences may be expressed at www.Tri-CityLLC.com.

“ Peggy was my neighbor at the Hillcrest Apartments in Poplar Bluff, we both helped each other out anytime I needed, be it a stick of butter, a pack of bologna, so either one of us didn't starve, when I cooked a meal I always thought of Ann and took her a dish. I've exchanged messaged with her a few times since she moved. Now she's out of pain and reunited with Haley in Heaven
