

Mrs. Peggy Sue Clark

August 17, 1949 - March 9, 2023

Peggy Sue (Glover) Clark of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, formerly of Manila, very peacefully took her last earthly breath and first heavenly breath surrounded by her daughters and grandchildren on Thursday evening, March 9, 2023. She was born August 17, 1949, in Blytheville, Arkansas to the late Colice and Vera Pearl (Bready) Glover.

Peggy was a loving, social, bright person who loved spending time with those around her. In 1967, she graduated from Durand High School in Durand, Illinois, and went on to graduate from Cotton Boll Technical Institute. Peggy was a Licensed Practical Nurse for the length of her working life and furthestmost enjoyed helping all patients, friends and family she encountered. She thrived being near family and was so proud of the family her and her late husband, Lynn, had built. Peggy will always be remembered as a joyful, family-oriented woman who loved her family vigorously and prayed for them daily. She always pointed her family back to Jesus. Peggy loved camping at Lake Charles with her husband, daughters and grandchildren for many years and often recalled the time and memories spent there. She enjoyed classic country and western music; among her all-time favorites were George Strait and Elvis Presley. She was such a proud and dedicated wife, mom, Granny, Gran-Gran, and aunt and was so proud of her growing family. Peggy's late husband Lynn, without a doubt, met Peggy at the pearly gates of Heaven alongside Jesus, ready to dance the night away. Peggy was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Manila.

She was preceded in death by her husband Lynn Royal Clark, her parents Colice and Vera Pearl (Bready) Glover, and her brother Jerry Glover.

Peggy is survived by her two daughters: Kerrie Dixon (Perry Jr.) of Dell and Stacy Weinmann (Ken) of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; five grandchildren: Troy Misner (Jen) of Dell, Kendra Tomboli (Seth) of Fayetteville, Skyler Weinmann of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Luke Dixon (Kailen) of Dell, Olivia Weinmann of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; seven great-grandchildren, Joie Beth Misner of Dell, Millie Ann Misner of Dell, Zayne Isaiah Tomboli of Fayetteville, Wrynlie Raye Misner of Dell, Rilynn Jo Dixon of Dell, Haven James Tomboli of Fayetteville, Lukas Lynn Weinmann of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; her sister Gloria Freeman of Manila, brother Jimmy Glover of McCrory, brother David Glover of Hampstead, North Carolina; and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

In honoring Peggy's wishes, the family will receive friends and family on Monday, March 13, 2023, from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the home of Perry Jr. and Kerrie Dixon located at 2792 North County Road 503 in Dell.

“ We are so sorry to hear about your dear mother. She had the gift of laughter. She always made me smile when we reminisced about the days of our youth and the fun times we had. She'll be missed by the many people she touched throughout her life. Be comforted knowing you were blessed having her for a mother. Bless you all.

“ It is with sadness to know that we will not have a chance to see Peggy again. Although she came late to our lives, she left wonderful memorable times with us. She was a gift and heaven is surely a great place for her to go. With love and prayers to the family and to all who knew her, God Bless! Linda and Pat
