

Ms. Vivian Dolly Dodd

June 18, 1967 - November 7, 2020

Vivian Dolly Dodd 53, died unexpectedly single, friendless, unemployed, and homeless. Dolly was a beautiful young lady that fought a losing battle with schizophrenia.

She was born and raised in Chicago, Illinois and later relocated to Arkansas making Trumann her home. Dolly spent most of her career selling cars at various dealerships. She enjoyed the outdoors. Her favorite times were going to the river and hanging out with friends and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her father Norman Floyd Dodd.

Dolly is survived by her mother Betty Mae Dodd of Lake City; one brother Norman (Jean Balou) Dodd of Trumann, Arkansas; three sisters Carol Greer and Sherry (Clarence Williams) Wilson both of Harrisburg, Arkansas and Tongajean Dodd of Keiser, Arkansas; and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

If she only knew how much she was loved and missed. We know she is now at peace. Her memorial service is still pending at this time however will be updated once final.

DIRECTIONS: Go east on Highway 14 to Highway 163 north. Go north 2.6
